Dear Ms. Jones

I am a resident of the Healey Building in downtown Atlanta, just a few blocks from the Sweet Auburn area, and a regular patron of the Curb Market. In my view, the Market serves as a linchpin for a number of neighborhoods and a keystone for further development downtown. I would like to be part of its promising future and contribute in a positive way to my neighborhood's development through participation on the Board of Directors.

I have a Bachelors Degree in Business Administration and am currently CEO of a $125 million manufacturing company. I am past Chairman of the Board of the Association of Craft and Creative industries, and a current board member for the Hobby Industry Association - both trade groups with memberships in the 5000 range.

I believe that my vested interest in downtown development, and my experience in business and board management could contribute to your Board as a Director. I've attached a brief CV for your review.

Please call me with any questions at 678-291-8241 (office) or 404-524-7101 (home)

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Michael J. McCooley
